

HONG KONG

4 Nights/5 Days Incentive Programme

Hong Kong is composed of Hong Kong Island, Kowloon, the New Territories and more than 260 outlying islands in the surrounding waters of the South China Sea. Compact and accessible, you'll find a host of attractions that will make your visit memorable. Hong Kong's new airport at Chek Lap Kok was opened on July 06, 1998. It has been named Hong Kong International Airport. The opening of the airport marks the successful conclusion of the $155.30 billion Airport Core Programme which is the largest infrastructure development ever undertaken in Hong Kong. The 1,248-hectare airport, built at a cost of $70.20 billion and four times larger in area than Kai Tak, is able to operate round the clock. The passenger terminal complex has its own automatic train and moving walkways and a wide range of facilities and retail shops.

Day 1

Arrive in Hong Kong, the former British Crown Colony, which in 1997 became an autonomous region of China. Despite the change of flags, Hong Kong continues to be the crossroads of the Orient where you can do, buy, eat and experience the thrill of an exciting environment 24 hours a day. The City of Life: Hong Kong is it! Chek Lap Kok is an island of Lantau Island and both were only accessibly by sea. They become conveniently accessible after the construction of the Tsing Ma Bridge and Kap Shui Mun Bridge. This 1.3-kilometre Tsing Ma Bridge links Tsing Yi and Ma Wan Islands and forms the main part of the Lantau Link. It is a suspension bridge and the world's longest carrying road and rail traffic. The Kap Shui Mun Bridge spans the channel between Ma Wan and Lantau, and a viaduct over Ma Wan links the two bridges. The Lantau Link commands a beautiful view of the Rambler Channel and the surrounding islands. Local guides will be waiting outside of the gate and escort guests to – the waiting bus at the parking lot.

Coach will be marked with sign. Luggage will be brought in a separate truck directly to the hotel. After a short bus ride you will transfer on to a luxurious Chinese junk “Oriental Dragon” from which you will have a magnificent view of Hong Kong seen in a way not normally enjoyed by tourists. An ideal opportunity for sightseeing during your unique transfer to the hotel. Upon arrival at the hotel guests will be escorted to the private registration area. Welcome drink will be served and keys will be distributed. Following registration, guests will be shown their way to the rooms to settle in and freshen up. Welcome Chinese dim-sum lunch. Dim-sum means light snacks, usually served in steaming bamboo baskets. It features bite-sized morsels of meat, seafood and vegetables wrapped in a thin coating of pastry or dough and then either steamed, braised, fried or boiled.

Afternoon Orientation tour of Hong Kong includes visits to:

Hong Kong Museum of History To the Hong Kong Museum of History whose mission is to preserve and promote the historical and cultural heritage of Hong Kong, “The Hong Kong Story” Permanent Exhibition is a showcase of the dedicated hard work done by the Museum staff in the past 26 years in collecting, preserving and researching the history and development of Hong Kong. Occupying an area of 7000 square meters, “The Hong Kong Story” has 8 galleries located on 2 floors. Through the display of over 3,000 exhibits with the use of 750 graphic panels, many dioramas and multimedia programmes, supported by special audio-visual and lighting effects,

“The Hong Kong Story” outlines the natural environment, folk culture and historical development of Hong Kong in a life-like manner. The exhibition, which is both entertaining and educational, starts from the Devonian Period 400 million years ago and concludes with the return of sovereignty of the territory to China in 1997.

Photo stop at Expo Promenade (Wan Chai District) The imposing Golden Bauhinia standing on Expo Promenade outside the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre on the waterfront in Wan Chai marks the most significant occasion in Hong Kong’s history – the return of the former British colony to the People’s Republic of China, and the establishment of the Special Administrative Region of Hong Kong.

The Peak Coach transfer to the Peak Tram Station to ride the famous funicular railway to the top of famed Victoria Peak for the incredible harbour and city skyline. Here you can see a spectacular 360° view of Hong Kong. A glass of champagne will be served on the rooftop of The Peak Galleria. Evening Welcome Cocktail Reception “A Journey through Asia”. An Oriental extravaganza of the best of Asian cuisine and culture to be enjoyed in one evening. Discover the delicacies of Japan, the provincial dishes of China and explore Thailand, the land of smiles. Venture through the garden city of Singapore; sample the curries of India and the deliciously sweet desserts of the Philippines. National costumes, flowers, decorations and colourful performances of Eastern dances, acrobatics and craftsmen create the flavour and sounds of each country visited.

LEI-YUE-MUN Cocktail Cruise This evening enjoy unlimited free drinks served aboard our luxury Chinese junk “ Oriental Dragon” cruising out to the fishing village of Lei-Yue-Mun. Lei Yue Mun Fishing Village, situated at Hong Kong’s Eastern Harbour and still carrying on many Chinese heritages, is widely known to the gourmets as a seafood paradise. Here visitors are attracted to many traditional scenes, like people making choice from a variety of seafood fresh from fishmongers’ stalls and tanks, and have it cooked to their own specifications in one of Lei Yue Mun’s many restaurants. After an escorted walk through the stilt village's fish market lanes, a set seafood

*Jetway Express Hong Kong
together with
Best Of Asia Travel Marketing*

dinner is served in one of the village's seafood restaurants. On the return journey, enjoy more of the glittering harbour views by night.

Day 2

Start the day with morning exercise of Tai Chi. It is a graceful exercise combining thought and action with an ancient martial art philosophy. Under the guidance of the Tai Chi Master, guests will learn simple breathing and relaxation exercises, which are easy and enjoyable to learn. Great Experience! Full American buffet breakfast in the hotel.

Attend Horse Racing If one image sums up the spirit of Hong Kong, it is the passion of the race day crowd. Since the first Plenipotentiary's Cup of 1846, horseracing has continued to be one of the few social activities that have truly brought the diverse cultures of Hong Kong together. The Hong Kong Jockey Club is marked with a colorful and unusual history, uninterrupted in its purpose save a few years during World War II in staging what is still - Hong Kong's most popular form of sporting entertainment. It stands today a unique model amongst the world's leading racing organizations, a Club that provides the most international of racing entertainment and one that races for charity. Your winners will experience the fever-pitch atmosphere of Hong Kong races in style. They will be transported to Happy Valley Racecourse or Sha Tin Racecourse, where they will enjoy a meal in the Members' enclosure. Afterwards, materials will be provided to help them pick a winner. The bets are placed, the bell rings, and the excitement begins ... Note: race meetings are held on most Wednesday evenings and weekends throughout the September-to-June season. If you wish to include it in your programme, please match your schedule with these days.

OR

Macao Depart from Hong Kong by first class turbojet. The trip to Macao is one hour. Arrive in Macao and proceed through immigration. Pick-up by Rickshaws (2-per-rickshaw) from pier to Leal Senado Square (Municipal Council) and start walking tour to the Ruins of St. Paul. Then drive to Penha Hill Church, a graceful chapel first built in 17th century as part of Guia fort, commending a magnificent view of the Pearl River, Macao inner harbour and city. Lunch will be served at Macao Tower. Macao Tower is a new tourist attraction. Macao Tower is located at the southwestern tip of the Macau Island, overlooking the Pearl River Delta. The tower soaring 338m at its highest point. The main observation lounge is 223m above ground. It is the 10th tallest freestanding tower in the world, and the 8th tallest in Asia. From the highest viewing level, the outdoor observation deck, it is possible to see 55km away. After lunch, continue on to Temple of A-Ma – dedicated to this deity after whom Macao was named by the Portuguese settlers in 1554 – 1557. The last stop is to visit the gambling tables of Macao's world famous casino. Return to Hong Kong by Turbojet in the late afternoon or early evening.

Evening breeze by in an open top bus ... a ride in an open-top double-decker bus, giving a panoramic view of everything along the way ... Dine-around dinner at top restaurants of Hong Kong. Virtually all the cuisines of the world are represented in Hong Kong, making it a food-lover's paradise. Your winners can multiply their gastronomic pleasures by touring a variety of dining spots and districts.

Day 3

Full American buffet breakfast in the hotel. Pick-up from hotel. Transfer to the Railway Station in Kowloon. By express train to Guangzhou. On arrival, visit Dr Sun Yat-sen Memorial Hall which standing at the foot of Yuexiu Hill. This hall is inked by stone steps with the monument on the hill dedicated to Dr Sun Yat-sen. The hall comprised four huge buildings with a octagonal tower in the centre. On its front gate is carved "All under the Universe are Equal" in Dr Sun's handwriting, while a bronze statue of Dr Sun is located in front of the hall. Continue to visit Mausoleum of the King of Southern Yue, which is built 2,600 years as the final resting place for King Zhao Mei (reigning 137-122BC) the second-generation ruler of the Southern Yue Kingdom. It is the largest ancient stone tomb to be discovered to date in South China. More than 1,000 cultural relics found in the tomb are now on display in the museum located on the site.

After lunch, coach transfer to Shenzhen. Visit Splendid China ... an amazing place reflecting China's 5,000-year history and culture. Built in miniature are more than a hundred of China's scenic wonders and historical monuments. The Great Wall, the Three Gorges of the Yangtze River, the Tomb of Genghis Khan, the Temple of Heaven, the Summer Palace, and the Potala Palace all constructed in astonishing detail compete for your attention. China's most famous sites, pagodas, Buddhist shrines and scenery can all be viewed within just one day. Early Chinese dinner at Tianyi pavilion.

After dinner, enjoy the performance "Dancing of Dragon and Phoenix" ... This open-air evening show is harmonious blend of modern edge technology and wonderful performance enriched by the 5000 years of Chinese performing art in dance, acrobatics and opera. The show is 100% impressive!

Bus transfer to train station. Cross the border and by train back to downtown Kowloon. Bus transfer back to the hotel.

Day 4

Full American buffet breakfast in the hotel. 10h15 the coach will pick you up from the hotel to tram depot. You will board a tram for a tour on Hong Kong Island - one of the most charming ways to experience a touch of Hong Kong. A truly memorable and one-of-a-kind experience. It rides from Western district – one of the oldest, most traditional areas. Passing through: Central district – known mainly as the commercial, banking and government district, Central is an architectural mélange of colonial buildings and high-tech towers. Wanchai – known during the 1960s as the R & R destination for sailors, today Wanchai contains offices, restaurants, nightclubs and hotels. Tour ends at Causeway Bay – the district's major claim to fame is its department stores. Coach transfer to the stylish "Repulse Bay Hotel" for lunch. Afternoon join a Team-Building Activity.

LION DANCE COMPETITION A dance with Lions ... Lion Dancing has been a part of Chinese culture for thousands of years. A fascinating spectacle of costume, color, music and movement, the Lion Dance is seen as an important ritual that is essential for an auspicious start to any venture. It exorcises evil spirits and brings good luck to all spectators. It also takes agility, coordination and stamina – great team builders. The teams compete on a variety of levels, learning new moves, skills, and testing their powers of teamwork to the limit.

DRAGON BOAT RACING Drums pound. Oars rip through the water. A well-trained crew works at fever pitch. The goal: bring a dragon boat across the finish line first. Dragon Boat racing has its roots in Chinese mythology, but it's a fast-paced, exciting International sport. Each race lasts a few minutes, so split seconds matter and teamwork is everything. Your achievers first practice rowing in a team, and then take off as arms and oars work in unison to the beat of the head drummer, whilst the tail pilot keeps the whole effort on course to victory. The power of teamwork at its best.

Evening Farewell dinner in The Aberdeen Marina Club Choice of themes:

- Hong Kong Temple Street Experience (Dai Pai Dong Theme Party)
Experience the reminiscent flavours and impressions of Hong Kong, past and present combined with a comfortable eating and socializing atmosphere. Dai Pai Dong eateries, hawker style stalls, flea market stalls will do just that. Experience the Temple Street jostle, the man in the corner making the grasshoppers, the lady reading your fortune and marvel on the aromas of freshly prepared mouth watering delicacies. From inside the Ballroom will be transformed, where Chefs prepare a wide variety of food along with local entertainment.
- Hawaiian “Hula Hula” Night (Poolside buffet)
Experience the heat of Hawaii at the Tropical Pool. Let your guests get immersed in the spectacular surroundings of the Aberdeen Marina Club’s own Tropical Pool. The sound of the waterfall, reminiscent of holidays at the beach. The buffet tables draped with colourful cloth, along with seashells and fish that capture the essence of Hawaii. Each table also includes a medley of water, sand and fun. For added experience, choose all or a selection of entertainment to boost the theme, from models in Hawaiian costume presenting flower garlands to each guest upon arrival as well as female dancers to fire jugglers and a band.
- Deep Water Fantasy (Gala dinner)

*Jetway Express Hong Kong
together with
Best Of Asia Travel Marketing*

Dive into an underwater fantasy world. The impact as guests enter the reception area of the Ballroom will be dramatic; illuminated, bubbling water pillars will lead them into a spectacular room, draped in shimmering blues and cobalt's and wonderfully lit floating candles in water bowls on each table. The tables also include ornate fish and shells, reflecting the lights from the candles. As added highlights if you want a dancing mermaid, magic show and a live band that enhance the underwater theme.

Day 5

Full American buffet breakfast in the hotel. Then ready yourself to join one of the following programmes:

TREASURE HUNT Hunting for “wonders” in Hong Kong is fun and easy. The streets of Hong Kong are the ideal treasure seeker’s hunting ground. If you look around, you can find many wonders in the hustle and bustle of the city. The competitive spirit of your achievers will be put to the test. The successful adventurer will be rewarded! OR

SCENIC HONG KONG PANORAMA TOUR by Helicopter ... You can fly high and experience the fascinating Hong Kong skyline and peaceful white beaches, or appreciate the monumental achievements such as the Big Buddha, Tsing Ma Bridge, and many more. Let’s soar skywards and see Hong Kong from different angles. OR

CHINESE CULTURAL PROGRAMME – “HONG KONG BEHIND THE MASK”

Chinese Medicine and Health Talk Traditional Chinese Medicine is fast emerging as an effective alternative to many Western treatments, as people around the world discover the benefits of an ecologically balanced life culture. Speakers at the Health Talk describe the nature of herbs, and their many uses in healing and prevention.

Feng Shui Talk With Feng Shui now firmly established in the West, many visitors to Hong Kong would be keen to find out more from a city where this ancient practice permeates many aspects of daily life. Experts in the field offer group talks, which throw fascinating light on the ancient principles of Fung Shui, offering groups a stimulating and practically useful lesson in a scientific art that can bring peace and tranquility to both home and office.

Cooking Class It’s all in the preparation, they say. Chinese cooking is an art that takes a lifetime to master, but an attentive student can quickly learn enough tips and tricks to make some delightful meals at home. A chef will demonstrate some of the facets of this most tempting of cuisines, giving them a gift that they will enjoy with their loved ones the rest of their lives.

Cantonese Opera Class - All the world’s a stage, and here is where your team can star in a mind-boggling feast of costume, color and exotic music. Cantonese opera, an exciting Chinese theatrical art, can bring your achievers together in a spirit of fun and fellowship. First they learn the ropes from professional actors, make-up artists and musicians. Then your trop achievers will tread the boards themselves in a unique production of a classic play, “Breaking the Red Lantern”. Once they have crossed cultures and seen new possibilities in themselves, your team will be ready to tackle any goal. A 3-minute videotape of the performance can be arranged at cost, and will be a cherished memento of this unforgettable experience.

Painting A Face – An Activity on Cantonese Opera Cantonese opera is a highly respected art form that blends Chinese legend, music and drama into an exciting performance style, rich in symbolic meaning. The Colour of the face, the swish of a sleeve, the flick of a finger, the rhythmic movements of the torso-fans of Chinese opera range from emperors in imperial Chinese courts to merchants and the man-in-the-street. Learn how the actors' faces are carefully painted to signify their roles as a prince or scholar, a villain or general. Each participant will have a basic make-up set. The instructor will briefly introduce and demonstrate the make-up process. Guests will do their own make-up. The best ones (two) will be awarded full hairdressing with costumes and head dressing for photo session.

OR At leisure with walking guides for participants to explore on their own before departure.

- Market visits to the flower, bird, jade markets as well as the wet markets.
- Visit shopping malls ... there is no better place to shop than in the shopping paradise called Hong Kong. The city's shops and malls feature awesome variety and the latest cutting edge products. Its compact size and no sales tax mean that shopping is a breeze in the CITY OF LIFE.
- Pampering – body massage or foot reflexology.

Incentive-class coach transfer to the airport where you will complete departure formalities.

= End of our Services =