OUTLINE OF INDIA INCENTIVE (Delhi – Agra – Jaipur – Delhi)

THE DESTINATION

INDIA: The WOW Effect!

The famous writer and traveller, Mark Twain, wrote after his journey through India in 1896:

"So far as I am able to judge, nothing has been left undone either by man or nature, to make India the most extraordinary country that sun visits on its rounds. Nothing seems to have been forgotten, nothing overlooked."

No wonder, he called India the "Land of Wonders".

CITIES

Delhi

The capital of India, Delhi is a fascinating mix of history and modernity, a city of contrasts where imposing fortresses, palaces & mosques, medieval ruins in landscaped gardens, the elegant edifices of the British 'Raj' all blend harmoniously into the trappings of a modern city. Cool tree lined avenues of Lutyen's Delhi are as much a part of the city's charm as the bustle of the busy bazaars of the walled city of Shahjehanabad. Delhi also offers a range of treats including cultural treats such as the arts and fine museums.

Agra

Famous as the home to one of the Seven Wonders of the World - the Taj Mahal. Also known as City of Taj, Agra was founded in 1475 AD. However city attained glory under the Mughal rulers during which Agra witnessed a frenzy of building activity. Taj Mahal – the monument of love, Agra Fort and Fatehpur Sikri, all examples of Mughal architecture. Modern Agra still reflects its Mughal heritage. The architectural splendor of the mausoleums, the fort and the palaces in Agra is a vivid reminder of the opulence of the legendary Mughal Empire. Agra was their capital for nearly a hundred years from 1564. A pleasant town, with a comparatively easy pace, Agra is known for its superb inlay work on marble and soapstone by artisans who are hereditary craft persons. Situated near to Agra, is the abandoned Mughal capital at Fatehpur Sikri.

Jaipur

The City of Victory – also known as the Pink City – Jaipur is capital of princely state of Rajasthan. It is the gateway to Rajasthan, the home of the Rajputs, the land of chivalry and martial tradition, of legends of brave men & beautiful women. Stately palaces, colourful bazaars, and old fortifications brooding above the city give it a medieval air. Jaipur is however only two hundred years old. Encouraged by the waning of Mughal power, Maharaja Jai Singh abandoned his ancestral hill fortress of Amber in 1727 and built the city that was named after him. The city reflects the character of state and its people; surrounded by rugged hills, each crowned by formidable fort, beautiful palaces, mansions and gardens dotted throughout the city. It was a planned city in the modern sense, built on a grid pattern but divided into nine sectors to symbolise the nine divisions of the universe.
