Memories Of The East – Raffles

Whether for a drink, cocktail, brunch, lunch or dinner, the Raffles Hotel stands as a legendary symbol of Singapore and 'for all the fables of the exotic east' since 1887. Imagine celebrities, such as Charlie Chaplin and Douglas Fairbanks, writers like Somerset Maugham and Noel Coward, Kings, Sultans & Politicians - all of whom have called Raffles home for short or long stays, and using it as a base for meeting people, or to enjoy dining in its unique ambience.

Raffles Hotel today is restored to its original elegant form, as it was in the period from 1910 to 1930. The elegance and grandeur of the property is matched by Raffles' restaurants, which offer the high level of service expected of the finest establishments to be found anywhere in the world today.

Come celebrate, come soak in the nostalgia, come live the memories of Raffles and the East.

Cultural Pageant At The Malay Village

Travel back in time to the good old kampong days when the fishing villagers used to lead a simple lifestyle.

Come visit the Malay Village located in a Malay district in Singapore and discover the traditional lifestyle of a typical Malay community in old Singapore.

Upon arrival, be greeted by the traditional Malay entertainers and dancers giving you the feel of a colourful festivity. Cocktails will be served in the courtyard. During the cocktails mingle around or take the option to visit the kampong (a walk through the showcase) featuring a typical Malay wedding, an open-air cinema and enjoy a movie on Malay culture. Guests can also try the Legenda Fantasi which offers a unique, multi-sensory experience that dramatically brings to life many Malay legends and folklore at the touch of a button. Be captivated by the amazing familiar tales from the Arabian Nights.

At the strike of the Malay kompang (hand-drum), guests will be led to the Singgahsana Hall where a traditional style dinner will be served followed by short acts by the Royal Dancers, including a mesmerising performance on the founding of Singapura - the Lion City!!!

Classical Evening At The Glass Hall – Singapore Art Museum

Step into the latest arts venue in Singapore - Singapore Art Museum's multi-purpose hall called The Glass Hall. Its name refers not only to the frameless glass enclosure but also to a glass installation consisting of 38 pieces of blown glass mounted on the glass walls.

The night will be a black and white affair with an artistic atmosphere. Private viewing of local artists' works can be arranged at the courtyard. There will be piano accompaniment throughout the evening.

Historical Splendour At Chijmes

A splendid final evening can be spent in the neo-classical chapel of the former Convent of the Holy Infant Jesus (CHIJ), which is undoubtedly the grand centrepiece of the famous girls school's original site.

Built in 1902, the chapel was the fulfilment of a dream of the founder of the school - Rev. Father Jean-Marie Beurel. The Gothic-styled architecture, with 19th century stained glass depicting biblical scenes, was a tribute to the Gothic revival in Europe. Stand at the main portal and imbibe the breathtaking grandeur of its vaulted ceiling, Corinthian columns and arcades, as well as the magnificent stained glass windows.

Guests are ushered into the grounds by the sounds of the bagpipes. Mingle around in the Garden Lawn, admiring the labour of love that has been put into restoring the buildings, while strains of a string quartet harmonise with the tinkling fountains and clink of champagne glasses.

At the chimes of the church bells, guests will be invited into the CHIJMES Hall for a sumptuous dinner spread of their choice. Throughout the evening, appropriate recorded music will fill the hall. As the evening draws to a close, near the serving of dessert, the chamber group from the Singapore Symphony Orchestra will present to your guests a repertoire which will be the highlight of the evening.
